

FAILURE IS NOT THE PROBLEM®

"There are no secrets to success. It is the result of preparation, hard work, and learning from failure."

-Gen. Colin Powell, USA (RET)

George "The Failure Coach" Milton is a motivational keynote speaker, author, and Founder & CEO of Failure Is Not The Problem®, LLC, a leadership development, and consulting company. His focus is to work with businesses and organizations, positioning them to become more productive, effective, and successful by addressing the challenges and adversities an organization experiences through his coaching, mentoring, training and teaching using the greatest resource we have in our arsenal, "FAILURE."

About George

George Milton is the CEO of Failure Is Not The Problem, LLC, a consulting company that specializes in leadership development and training, life coaching, and motivational speaking. He is a United States Army Retired, Colonel who has over 34 years of experience as an Army officer, internationally known Communicator, Coach, Mentor, Trainer Intuitive Counselor, Teacher, Inspirational Speaker, TV Co-Host and author, Failure Is Not The Problem, It's The Beginning Of Your Success. George connects with people of all ages on all levels. He is a former University Assistant Professor who has extensive experience working with the federal government but also has a tremendous background in working within city government and community organizations. In his role as a Senior Staff Officer at European Command in Stuttgart, Germany he routinely briefed and spoke with Ambassadors. He has experience speaking to and training foreign government officials and delivering oration to foreign public entities. As the Division Chief of the Civil Partnership Division, at European Command, he led on an annual basis, a group of staff members to Oxford University, in Oxford, England on a two week trip to study and learn how to properly "Partner" with civilian agencies in support of military organizations.

COL Milton motivated us all to give our best to European Command (EUCOM), and to serve from our hearts as well as our minds. A polished public speaker, COL Milton inspired us to "be all that we can be." His imprint has left a lasting impression on my own life as well as countless others.

~Catherine Johnson, PhD, USAID Senior Foreign Service (retired).

George's command of the room only deepened as he shared his personal experiences with failure. A dynamic speaker, George connected with every audience member and many were eager to share their own experiences and ask for advice. The true impact of his talk continues to resonate as athletes in attendance that day inquire as to how soon George will be back to talk again.

For one to become successful there are four steps:

1. Believe you can become successful.
2. Focus on your goals.
3. Work hard.
4. Fail.

-When you fail, the process starts over.

-Learn how to reach your goals by failing.
